Solar Eclipse Poem

Help!

No!

This can't be true.

What will we do?

It's dark!

It's gray!

Sun's disappeared!

The sun is gone,

It's what we feared!

Sun's blown out!

Its shine has stopped.

The sun is there,

Solar eclipse,

Sunlight's blocked,

By the moon,

So don't be shocked...

The moon will move.

And this eclipse,

Will soon be done!

From the Presidents:

On April 8 there will be a Solar Eclipse of the Sun, which we will be able to see in Ohio. The next eclipse will not happen until 2039! So, try to make this one. Check your local libraries for free glasses. Amazon is selling glasses and some Walmarts, Lowes, and Home Depots.

We are very excited to welcome Shifon Ballard into our sisterhood. The induction ceremony will be held at 5:30 at our April meeting.

Love, Ann & Wendy

Please send any news for the newsletter to Carol Ann Hart by the 10th of the month.

President Ann Fetrow asked for our help at the last meeting. She would like those of you who have anything that is used for Beta Chi meetings (decorations and such) notify her where the items are being stored. This would help to create an inventory of resources for the Beta Chi members to use.
